The 2011 summer season proved to be another memorable sharing of our Presbyterian House intergenerational Christian community. Almost six hundred guests enjoyed the lovely facilities, house hymn sings, appetizers on the porch, worship and shared mealtimes. A guest was asked what made the Presbyterian House so special. She replied, "That's easy. It's got soul." We would love to share our hearts and "soul" with you.

If you are interested in joining us for the 2012 season, carefully read through all the information contained in this package.
